

AUGUST & SEPTEMBER WRITING PROMPTS

Name: _____

Write about what a morning is like on your bus or in your car on your way to school.

Aug. and Sept. Journal Prompt 12

©Kerissa Teep, Elementary, Inc.

 Pretend we had a whole week off of school. What would you do instead?

Name: _____

Write about a time that you were excited.

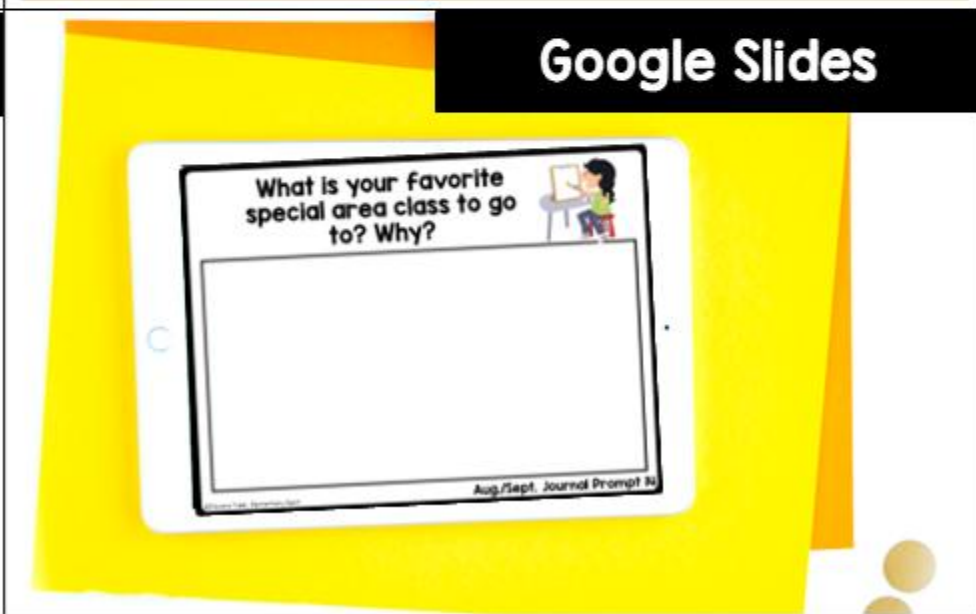

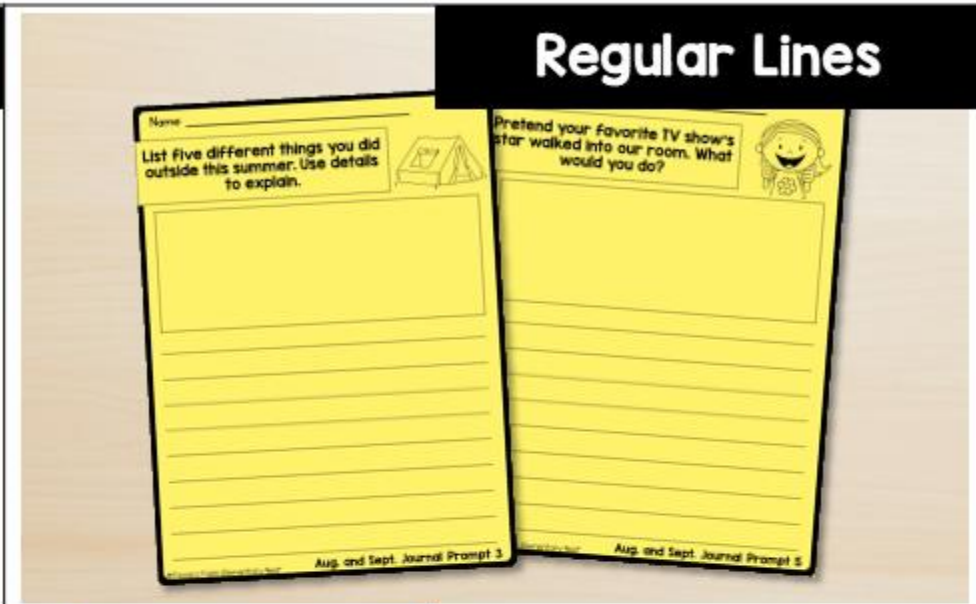

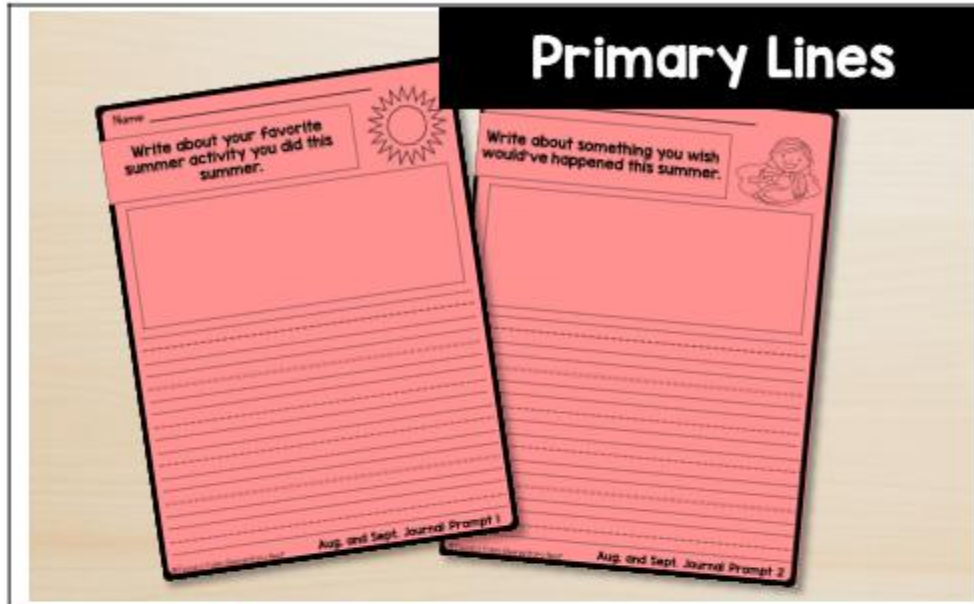

Aug. and Sept. Journal Prompt 25

©Kerissa Teep, Elementary, Inc.

CHOOSE YOUR FORMATTING

There are 4 formatting options for you:

- Prompt strip for journals
- Digital prompts for Google Slides
- Primary-lined paper
- Regular-lined paper

TOPICS COVERED

There is a variety of August and September themed topics to use:

- Summer
- Goals
- Reading
- Parties
- Recess
- Dinosaurs
- Animals
- Shopping
- Morning Routines
- AND MORE!

Two overlapping worksheet templates are shown. The foreground template is yellow and features a 'Name:' field, a box with the prompt 'Write about how reading makes you feel.' accompanied by a cartoon girl reading a book, and a large writing area with dashed lines. The background template is red and features a 'Name:' field, a box with the prompt 'Tell me about your favorite...' accompanied by a party hat icon, and a large writing area with dashed lines.

FEEDBACK FROM TEACHERS

“I really liked this resource because I was able to keep students accountable with the prompt right in front of them. The topics were engaging.”

“Such a great activity that I have incorporated in my morning routine! Students love using this as a quick write to get their brain ideas flowing.”

“My students love these writing prompts! They are highly engaging!”

